ANNUAL REPORT OF HORTICULTURAL COMMISSIONER SHOWS RESULTS

Nursery stock shipments have been greater this season than any of which we have record. The material, on a whole, has been unusually good, the total number of condemned plants having been only 24,342. Most of these were returned to the shippers, bein infested with insect pests which could be removed by mechanical or other means. Those infected with more serious diseases were destroyed.

As was expected, a large proportion of the inspections made was of berry plants. Of bush berries, raspberry, blackberry, and miscellaneous, 175,088 were imported into the county and re-exported, 53,135 imported and planted, 208,708 grown in the county and exported, and 18,620 grown and planted in the county, a total of 455,623 bush berry plants inspected, of which 71,755 were planted in the county. 53,779 strawberry plants were imported and re-exported, 679,095 imported and planted in the county. A total number of 732,874 strawberry plants inspected.

437,114 ornamental plants were shipped into the county, and 375,142 bulbs were inspected for local growers for export, total ornamental plants inspected 812,256.

Of fruits, grapes lead with 25,878, pears 9,438, apricots 4,779, plums 2,748, walnuts 1,589, peaches 1,779, apples 1,378, cherries 1,284, prunes 407, almonds 433, figs 389, miscellaneous 684, total 50,786.

33,142 packages of seed were inspected. Of these 28,475 were sacks of seed potatoes for the Colma section and 157 sacks of peas and beans for contract seed growing at Pescadero.

In addition to the above 9,289 vegetable plants, 12,396 boxes of fruit, and 81 miscellaneous articles were received into the county, making a total of 5,203 shipments, consisting of 2,106,447 plants and packages inspected.

Rodent Control

38,938 acres of land were treated with 24,682 pounds of poison grain during the year at an average cost of 9 cents per acre for labor and material. 23,958 acres treated with carbon bisulphide, cost 31 cents per acre. 3,200 gallons of carbon and 293,990 waste balls were used.

The average cost, as given, was arrived at by taking the actual cost of labor and material to 70 farmers, selected at random from all parts of the county, and covering, approximately 12,000 acres treated.

Fumigation of Horse Beans

5,714 sacks of horse beans were fumigated under supervision of inspectors during the year. This practice has not, in my opinion, decreased the number of weevil infested beans and will therefore be discontinued.

Investigational Work

With the assistance of the University of California, the United States and State Departments of Agriculture, and some of the manufacturers of spray materials, various experiments are being carried out looking to the control of some of the most serious insect pests and plant diseases of the county. These have been mentioned at various times in my monthly reports but, to recapitulate the problems under investigation are; the control of the artichoke moth, red spider on strawberries, crown borer in respberries, root maggot in cauliflower, cabbages, and onion, and aphis attacking potatoes. For this latter an efficient method of control has been established.

The work on the control of the artichoke moth has met with a number of disappointments, but at present we have about 60 plants in a plot which will be under the absolute control of the commissioner and we hope to be able to get some results. I have not heard recently from the University as to whether they are to continue with their investigations or not but this office will coninue working on the matter.

In conclusion, detailed reports, covering all matters contained herein, are on file in my office and are open to public inspection. The report of nursery stock inspections does not attempt to show the actual number of plants and trees brought into the county, but only those which have been officially inspected. Many are brought in without being reported, as people will go outside the county and purchase flowers, shrubbery and trees, and bring them into the county without reporting to the Horticultural Commissioner in spite of the fact that to do so is a misdemeanor, punishable by a fine of five hundred dollars or six months in jail or both fine and imprisonment.

Respectfully submitted,
Horticultural Commissioner, San Mateo County.

Until you know your weakness, you can't apply your strength.

Annual County School Report Shows Growth

Before leaving on his vacation last week, County Superintendent of Schools, Roy W. Cloud, completed his annual report and filed it with the State Superintendent of Schools. The report is a voluminous document and contains statistics relating to all the schools of San Mateo county.

The report shows that there are seven kindergartens with a total enrollment of 635 children, 296 boys and 339 girls. The expense of maintaining these schools were $10,248.79.

There are 36 school districts in the county and one suspended, employing, all together, 172 teachers. School was maintained an average of 188 days this year, probably one of the highest in the state. The average attendance was 6255 pupils daily which provides for a state appropriation for 215 teachers.

The county superintendent made 304 visits to the schools and trustees of the schools of the county. The report shows that there are 44,861 volums in the school libraries of the county.

The total enrollment was 7,299 for the year, 3,805 boys and 3,494 girls. During the year the apportionments amounted to $877,449.20, and the expenditures were $687,669.14, thus leaving a balance of $189,780.06. The largest item of expense was $234,767.97 spent on teachers' salaries. The elementary school tax was 50 cents and 24 districts were granted special taxes. The valuation of all elementary school property is fixed at $1,107,200 and the outstanding bonded indebtedness is $701,850.

There are six high school districts, employing 93 teachers, and one junior college with eleven teachers. The total enrollment for the high school districts was 1,425, of which 704 were boys and 722 girls. The total amount apportioned to the high school districts was $1,158,530.84, the expenditures were $601,312.80, leaving a balance on hand of $557,218.04. The high school teachers received as salaries for the year, $200,924.92. The total valuation of all the high school property was $1,329,244 and the total outstanding indebtedness is $982,000. A gain of 582 was made in the total enrollment this year over that of last year.

AGED RESIDENT SUCCUMBS TO SUDDEN HEART ATTACK

Stricken down without any previous illness, and passing away without any pain, Mrs. Maria Holmquist, 79, and for many years a resident of this city, died at her home at 127 Franklin street last Wednesday evening. The cause of her death is said to have been heart trouble.

The deceased was a native of Sweden, but had lived in this country since early girlhood. She is survived by two sons, Rudolph Holmquits of this city and Prof. Hjalmar Holmquist of Aeberdeen, Washington, who came home in order to attend the funeral of his mother which will be held today.

A SURPRISE LAWN PARTY

The Christian Endeavor gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Locker on Main street, last Thursday evening for what proved to be a surprse party for the two most recently married coupies of the society, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Uhlenberg and Mr. and Mrs. John Isaac. Lunch was spread on the lawn and the party enjoyed many good eats, after which the party moved to the house, where the two young matrons found themselves to be the recipients of a shower of useful gifts, which were hid out of sight in every conceivable place.

ABANDONED BABY FOUND AT SAN CARLOS

To find a baby about a month old, crying by the roadside, apparently deserted, was the experience of Carl Zeh of San Carlos last Wednesday. Zeh was passing an unfrequented path, when he was attracted by the crying of a baby near the roadside. He followed the sound and found a small infant laying in the blazing sun, apparetly left to die of exposure. The baby, a boy, was dressed in plain clothing, from which all marks of identification had been removed, and was wrapped in a shawl, which had been rolled in the grass. From this latter circumstances, and from bruises on the child's head, it is thought that the infant had been thrown from a passing automobile or other vehicle, to the roadside.

The child is now in the Mills Memorial hospital being treated for severe sunburn attendant upon its long exposure in the open. If no clew can be found as to the identity of the inhuman creature who left the child to perish, it will be given to the care of the Native Daughters, who place orphan children in private homes, where they are well taken care of.

REDWOOD CITY STORES CLOSE FOR HARDING FUNERAL DAY

Practically all the stores of Redwood City were closed yesterday, as a token of respect for the late president, who was laid to rest at that time. Only those whose business made it impossible to close, remained open, while some were open during certain hours of the day. In the evening a union meeting of all the Protestant churches was held in the Congregational church, at which time a memorial service was conrdcted by Rev. Roland Dodge, assisted by the other pastors of the town. In the morning a special mass was celebrated for the repose of the President's soul in the Mt. Carmel Catholic church, as well as in the Church of the Nativity in Menlo Park.

COUNTY CLERK TRIAL WITNESS

Among the witnesses heard in the trial of Frederick N. Littleton, former naturalization examiner of this district, now being tried for fraud in the Federal Court in San Francisco, was Mrs. Elizabeth M. Kneese, county clerk of this county. The testimony of Mrs. Kneese was heard last Wednesday, before Federal Judge Partridge, and dealt with the admission of aliens to citizenship in the Superior Court of this county.

Littleton conducted naturalization examinations here for many years. He is now charged with fraud in admitting aliens who were exempted in the draft during the war as being aliens, and are therefore ineligible for citizenship. More than 60 aliens will be called upon to testify during the trial. Many are said to have confessed having received citizenship by fraud with the aid of Littleton.

STANEY CASE DISMISSED BY JUDGE BENJ. KNIGHT

The sensational case of B. Stanley vs D. F. Fitzpatrick et al which has been attracting much attention, both because of the number of times it has been placed on the calender of the local and other courts and because of the cal and other courts and because of the wild and unsubstantial charges made, has at last come to a conclusion. The case was dismissed by Superior Judge Benj. Knight, before whom the latest hearing was made. The case is well known, and is the attempt of Benjamin B. Stanley to obtain, through his attorney, Samuel T. Bush of San Francisco, a portion of the estate of his mother, now in possession of his grandmother, Mrs. Lidia Barney of Palo Alto. In this latest attempt, the plaintiffs in the case charged partiality in securing the jury, and made other charges, none of which could be proved.

WAR DEPARTMENT GRANTS BRIDGE CONSTRUCTION PERMIT

The War Department has granted a permit to Engineer Harrington for the construction of the Dumbarton bridge at the location asked for by the engineer. This became known during the week. The department, however, will insist that the money for the building of the structure or its equivalent be shown. That is that the parties behind the enterprise show their good faith in a substantial way. No camouflage will be permitted by the Washington authorities. It is said Mr. Harrington has the money for the construction of the bridge and will make a proper showing. Mr. Harrington says he will have men at work on the project within a month. The securing of the permit has been a long-drawn-out battle and the happy result will be cheerful news to all in this community. The construction of the bridge means a great deal to the county. It will open new avenues of industry and also serve as an outlet to the congested highways of this end of the peninsula.

Lineman Fatally Injured While at Work

Walter R Spencer, lineman for the Pacific Gas and Electric Company, was fately burned last Monday when working on the company's lines on the Woodside road, just above the Menlo Country Club golf course, his hand had come in contact with a high voltage wire. The unfortunate man was taken to the ground by his companions and medical assistance summoned immediately, but his condition was too serious, however, for the resuscatative measures to be of any avail and he passed away shortly after the accident.

Spencer was 36 years of age, a native of Vermont, and had lived with his family here since February. He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Ila Spencer, two small children, and a mother, who is a resident of Vermont. The Spencers are occupying the Bement house on Arguello street.

BUSY MEETING OF SUPERVISORS

The Board of Supervisors of this county at their regular meeting last Monday, granted the petition forewarded to them by the Town Trustees of the Town of Redwood City, to exclude the tract of marsh land from the incorporated limits of this town, which is to be the location of the cement works. No opposition to the exclusion was voiced.

The proposition of selling $50,000 of Burlingame school bonds was discussed and it was decided that the bonds should be sold at this time and the clerk was orered to advertise the sale in the Burlingame papers.

The matter of the greatest importance to be considered by the supervisors at this meeting was the application of both Atherton and Menlo Park for incorporation. No action was taken by the board at this meeting, however, except to set the hearing for both proposition for the meeting of August 20. As the land included in the two proposed towns overlaps to a large extent, it is expected that a lively discussion will feature the date of hearing these petitions.

A petition was received from the residents of Halfmoon Bay for an appropriation for the purchase of additional fire apparatus for that place. This matter was referred to County Auditor J. J. Shields to report upon at the next meeting.

Timothy Hopkins of Menlo Park, chairman of the committee of five to investigate the proposition of acquiring a tract of redwood land in the county for a public park, reported that the committee had given a great deal of time and attention to the subject had investigated a number of prospective sites and had decided upon two which they desired to recommend to the Supervisors, one the Peterson holdings of 310 acres along the Pescadero creek, near Harrison and the other the Hooper tract of 1080 acres in the Alpine district. The latter, Hopkins stated, contains larger timber than the Peterson tract and has many flat surfaces which would be suitable for camping sites. The committee, Hopkins said, felt that the county would make no mistake in purchasing either of the tracts.

On motion of Supervisor MacBain, seconded by Supervisor Brown, the board extended a vote of thanks to the committee for the time and consideration that the members gave to the matter.

A petition was received, signed by 15 residents of the Fair Oaks district, asking that Seventh avenue in that district be improved. Mrs. Mary J. McKinley, one of the signers was also present in person and requested that the road in question be rocked and rolled. Supervisor MacBain, in whose road district the avenue is, replied that none of the streets in Fair Oaks are county property He had, however, he said, been given a deed to Fifth avenue, and would improve it as soon as h had money enough in his road fund.

A communication from the Three Cities Mosquito Abatement district, stating that the sum of $2,468.50 would be required to carry on the work of the district for the coming fiscal year. The matter was referred to the County Auditor.

The annual report of the County Horticultural Commissioner, which is printed in full elsewhere in this paper, was received by the board, and also a communication from State Horticultural Commissioner Heckey, stating that Commissioner A. W. Tate was eligible for reappointment.

THE NEW PRESIDENT

President Calvin Coolidge is a warm personal friend of Senator Samuel M. Shortridge. When they both assumed the duties of office two years ago they became fast friends. Mr. Coolidge, then vice president and as such presiding officer of the senate, was only in the chair a few days when he called upon Mr. Shortridge to preside over the senate, an honor usually accorded the old members. Rarely is a new member called upon to preside. This shows the confidence Mr. Coolidge had in the California statesman. During the coming session of congress Mr. Shortridge will be one of the president's confidential advisers in national affairs.

This close friendship with the president means much to California as useful legislation may be more readily secured. During the last session of congress Senator Shortridge was frequently called to the chair. He presided with dignity and marked ability.

THE ALIEN AND THE PUBLIC SCHOOL

Last week twenty-five out of forty-three candidates for citieznship had their naturalization delayed because they had not sufficiently informed themselves concerning their rights and duties as citizens and because they had not learned enough about the form of government under which they are now living.

A condition such as this, giving a majority failure out of a class of applicants, should not exist in San Mateo county. Each high school in the county is giving or is willing to give citizenship classes, wherein the alien may study the things he needs to know for his examination.

The schools are conducted by experienced teachers and if the aliens are willing to spend a little time they may receive the instruction they need.

When we come down to the real principle of the proposition, every alien should be required to attend a California school before being admitted to all the rights given to his fellow citizens in this State.

GOOD BUSINESS

A short time ago we were talking to one of the merchants of Redwood City, who is the agent for a large supply house, who furnish their local agents with all necessary office stationery at cost. In the course of the conversation he said, "I could get all my stuff from the company at a far lower figure than I can get it from local shops, but I don't, because I want to patronize the people who patronize me. I make my money here and I want to spend it here." Now there is concentrated good citizenship and good business, too. It is a mark of good citizenship to have the mark of one of the local shops on your dodgers and placards. The merchants of Redwood City desire, and should get the trade of every one who makes his home, and earns his living here, but they musn't complain if some trade in a near-by town when they persist in practising what they do not preach. A man's ernestness or his hypocracy are shown by his adhearing to the ways, himself, that he sets down for others. Printing is merchandise just as much as drygoods or furniture, and the printer, as a merchant of the town, is just as much right to expect to receive the work of the merchant he patronizes as that merchant has to expect the trade of the printer. Printing sent out of town means money sent out of town, which otherwise might have been kept here to improve your town instead of the other man's. Remember to look for the lable when a dodger or hand bill is handed to you, it indicates that your merchant trades at home and is entitled to the trade of those who want their money spent in Redwood City.

A BOLSHEVIST ADMISSION

"The Bolshevists' leaders in Russia are rather slow in realizing and acknowledging the fatal faults of their theories," declares the Republican Publicity Association, through its president, Hon. Jonathan Bourne, Jr. "One of the high officials of the Russian government recently admitted that 'Our main trouble is that we do not know how to organize production.'

"Lenin and Trotsky looked upon the organizers of productive industry as non-producers, as mere 'capitalists.' They seized the property of these organizers of industry and either slaughtered them or drove them out of the country.

"It is to be hoped that the lesson will not be lost upon those people in the United States who are inclined to listen to bolshevist sophistry. We have successful organizers of industry in this country. Our great advancement has been due to the skill and energy of men who began at the bottom in their various lines of endeavor and learned the business from the bottom up. Those men organized our great productive enterprises, our transportation system, our banking system and our agencies for the rapid transmission of news, and for communication by the telegraph and telephone and by wireless. Our great flour mills, our lumber mills and our packing plants were established and built up by organizers of industry.

"If the United States were to turn bolshevist, these men would be deprived of their property, they would be murdered or exiled, and in a few years the new rulers would be admitting, as the bolshevists in Russia now admit, that 'Our main trouble is that we do not know how to organize production.'

"The sober-minded people of this country will do well to check the bolshevist movement in its incipiency, for it leads straight to destruction."

CAUSE AND EFFECT

Salt Lake City expended $50,000 in newspaper advertising a year ago. Result: Bank clearings are 20 per cent more, building permits have doubled and the crops and livestock businesses have been good.

FRAGMENTS OF COUNTY HISTORY BRIEFLY TOLD

Happenings in the Mexican and Early American Days in the Coast-side Village of Pescadero, and the Beginnings of its Institutions

Pescadero, this name suggests not only to the inhabitants of San Mateo county, but to thousands of tourists who have sought out the romantic and picturesque scenery of the Pacific Coast, a spot where nature seemed loath to expose her charms and shly hid Pescadero away among the mountains. Here a recess in the coast hills widens into a perfectly level plain of several hundred acres into which two perennial streams drop down from their weird sources in the dark forests of redwood, and rush out of the narrow gateway to the sea.

Of civilized men, this little valley first attracted the attention of one, Gonzales, a Spaniard, who obtained a grant of it from the Mexican government, called the Rancho de San Antonio, or Pescadero. Perhaps the hundreds of anglers who have decoyed the speckled trout from the Butano and Pescadero creeks have never reflected that the great abundance with which these streams were filled gave rise to the name of the grant and to the town. Gonzales came upon the grant with the intention of erecting a permanent residence, but soon after died.

The attractions that have rendered Pescadero a favorite summer resort are numerous and varied. The village itself is a model of neatness, and there are several beautiful residences

The climate is of that happy mean between the heat that parches and the cold that chills. Mineral springs abound; trout streams make it a paradise for fishermen; the dense forests of redwood afford magnificent picnic and camping grounds. The pebble moss and shell beach has for years been the resort of tourists and pleasure seekers, and Pescadero pebbles can be found in many of the Eastern States and Europe.

The first white settlers who came to Pescadero township to make it their permanent residence, and to cultivate the soil, were Richard Vestal, Harry Ryan, John Rader and Joshua Poole. They arrived in January 1853. Prior to this time Eli Moore had purchased a portion of the Pescadero Rancho, and had given a portion of it to his son, Alexander. In May of the same year, George F. Wyman, who had moved into the country, also took up his residence at Pescadero, and remained there until 1868, when the transferred his domicile to Spanishtown.

In 1853, Alexander Moore came to Pescadero to live, arriving here March 15th. John Tuffy drove a yoke of cattle into the county for Moore, but did not permanently reside here until several years later. In the same year Lafayette Chandler came to Pescadero. With Alexander Moore came also a man named John Daly, whom he employed to drive swine from Santa Cruz to the ranch. Daly remained here until early in the year 1855. The bent of his genius is illustrated in the following circumstances, which also explains the cause of his afterwards seeking a more congenial neighborhood. In 1855 the sloop, Sea Bird, was at Pigeon Point recovering what could be saved of the wreck of the Carrier Pidbeon, previously lost on that point. The Sea Bird sprung a leak and was beached on the south side of Anno Nuevo. Some of the coal she had on board was washed ashore. Before this, the discovery of indications of the exsitance of coal in the vicinity had caused considerable excitement. Daly found on the beach some lumps that had come from the Sea Bird's cargo, and a brilliant project struck him. Collecting a few lumps, he proceeded to Santa Cruz, where he exhibited them to Bill Butler Eli Moore, Sam Drannan and Captain Brannan, representing to them that he had discovered a coal mine on Gazos creek, and that these were specimens of the coal. He proposed to sell his lucky strike to them provided that they would advance him a small amount of money on the spot. This they agreed to, and the coin was duly paid over to Daly, with the understanding that he was to conduct them to the place and point out the mine to them at once. Daly took them to the creek, and arriving at a point on the banks, told Drannan, Moore and Butler, to remain there while he and Captain Brannan followed the bed of the creek a little further up, to find the place where the coal had cropped out. Brannan was a fleshy man, and Daly counted on his ability to get away form him as soon as they were out of sight of the rest of the party. He made the essay, endeavoring by some ruse to beguile the Captain entirely away from a suspicion of his design, and at the same time to place such a distance between them as would give him a start that would insure escape. Captain Brannan had just enough confidence in Daly to forbid his trusting him one inch, so he kept close to the Irishman's heels, and at length being fully satisfied that his guide was trying to get away from him, brought him to a halt and made him confess the whole trick. Brannan was armed, Daly was not. This gave the captain the advantage in the argument which his antagonist recognized the force of, and the latter obediently marched back to the place where the other men had been left to wait. A brief council was held—a sort of a drum head court martial—and it was decided that Daly should be summarily punishe for his rescality. The sentence was that he should be tied face down to four stakes driven into the ground and whipped on the bare back. Captain Brannan was appointed the executioner, and Daly having been secured in position, according to the sentence, the lash was laid on with an earnestness that left little room in his mind for a doubt that he had made a grevious mistake. Upon being released, Daly skulked away and left the county.

The first house erected in Pescadero was built by Gonzales in 1852, on the north side of the creek above the old crossing. In 1854 John Breeding, Norval Stevenson, John Scudder and John Pence came to Pescadero together. Breeding settled on the creek below B. Hayward's mill, where he continued to live until his death by suicide. Norval Stevenson remained here until 1859. After the death of Eli Moore, he leased the latter's house at Santa Cruz, and lived there for two years. He then returned to Illinois and then removed to Kansas, where he died in 1881. Scudder remained in Pescadero only one year and then went east. Pence died the same year of his arrival, and his is the first death of a white man recorded at Pescadero.

Isaac Beeson is the only settler of 1855 of whom any record has been found for this history. He rented from Gonzales the land which Poole had previously occupied. The first store where goods were sold to any extent in Pescadero, was established this year by a man named Downes, in a little shake building situated just below Swanton's hotel. In 1856 Samul Besse, Brad Weeks and John Rader were its proprietors, and in 1858 Reder, who had become sole owner moved the store to the north side of the creek. H. C. Bidwell bought Rader out and afterwards took Nelson as a partner. In 1860 the firm style was again changed, becoming Besse and Garretson and four years later Besse became the exclusive proprietor. Garretson again became interested with Beese; the latter, however afterwards sold his interest to P. G. Striker, and the firm was Garretson and Striker until January, 1873, when Garretson sold to James McCormick. In 1877 Garretson bought the entire store.

Braddock Weeks and Henry Wurr were recorded as settlers in 1856. This year a justice of the peace was elected, and it is said that during his whole official term, he was called upon but once to exercise his magisterial functions, and that was in a preliminary examination of man charged with murder. The circumstances of the case were as follows: On the night of February 2, 1857, a man named Richard Jones, but better known as "Little Dick" in company with others was gambling at the store of Rader, Besse and Weeks. Sometime during the night Jones left but returned again at daylight and knocked at the door for admission. The parties inside refused to admit him, and, in his rage he kicked a hole in through the side of the store, which was an old shake building, and the first of its kind built in Pescadero. Rader picked up a shotgun and going to the door shot "Little Dick" in his tracks. Another one of the party, named Long, was arrested for the shooting, and it was his preliminary examination on this charge that required the judiciary offices of the august functionary above referred to. The judge held Long to answer. Rader, however, appeared before the grand jury and confessed that it was he who killed "Little Dick." Long, of course, was acquitted, and Rader tried and acquitted his counsel being Judge R. F. Peckham.

In 1857 the first school house in Pescadero was erected just north of Alexander Moore's place and at the corner of his orchard. The size of the building was 14x16 feet. For a teacher, Mr. Moore employed Mrs. Shield Knight, who was a governess in the family of Captain Graham of Santa Cruz. Her salary was $400 per year and was paid by Mr. Moore himself. She had but seven pupils, four of whom were from Mr. Moore's house and the other three were Spanish children. In 1859 Sam Merit took charge of the school. A stove was needed, and Mr. Garretson agreed to contribute one on the condition that Merit should carry it on his back from the store to the school house, a distance of a mile, without putting it down. The teacher accepted the banter, and shouldering his burden started with it for the school house. Mr. Garretson kept along with him to see that the conditions were faithfully complied with. Merit won fairly the stove for the school and it did good service in the little building, and also subsequently in [illegible] school building that was erected on the opposite side of the creek.

FAMOUS COLORED JAZZISTS TO PLAY HERE AUG. 18.

Dixieland Jazz Band, the organization that has filled hundreds of phonograph records with the tunes that tickle the feet of a nation and which has furnished music for the famous Ziegfield Follies in New York, will play for the Grand Ball to be given at Foresters' hall, Saturday evening, August 18. The musicians are 5 colored artists, every one a master of his instrument, with Curtis Mosby, (himself) famous saxaphonist composer of "Bugle Blues," "Maple Leaf Rag," and "Pay Day Blues." Dance and hear these phonograph stars play their own compositions. Dancing starts promptly at 8 o'clock.

It would be interesting to know which has made the more liars—liquor or the smoking compartment of a train.

PETITION OF THE BOARD OF SUPERVISORS OF THE COUNTY OF SAN MATEO, STATE OF CALIFORNIA, TO INCORPORATE MENLO PARK AS A TOWN OF THE SIXTH CLASS.

To the Honorable, The Board of Supervisors in and for the County of San Mateo, State of California:

The petition of the undersigned respectfully represents:

I.

II.

We respectfully petition that that portion of the County of San Mateo containing not less than five hundred inhabitants be organized, incorporated and formed into municipal corporation of the State of California, as a town of the sixth class, under and in pursuance of Act 2248 of the Legislature of the State of California, known as "MUNICIPAL CORPORATION BILLS" and entitled "AN ACT TO PROVIDE FOR THE ORGANIZATION, INCORPORATION AND GOVERNMENT OF MUNICIPAL CORPORATIONS," and that all acts and procedure necessary and provided to be done by your Honorable Board be had and taken in accordance with the provisions of the Act above referred to.

For this purpose your petitioners set forth and particularly describe the proposed boundaries of such corporation to be that portion of the county of San Mateo, State of California, particularly described as follows:

Your petitioners allege that the above described boundaries proposed for the exterior boundaries of the corporation to be known as the Town of Menlo Park are also the exterior boundaries of the present sanitary district of Menlo Park, officially known as "MENLO PARK SANITARY DISTRICT," as shown by the records of the Board of Supervisors of San Mateo County.

IV.

Your petitioners state that the number of inhabitants within said proposed boundaries above described, is 2,000 as nearly as may be.

NEW TOURIST MAP PREPARED FOR VISITING TOURISTS

Difficulties of travel and bumps on the touring trail that usually confront the motorist traveling in a strange state are to be "ironed out" for motor tourists visiting California by services offered them free by the California State Automobile Association, according to a program announced this week.

Among the leading services offered the visiting motorist is a tourist map covering that part of California north of the Techachapi. The map, which has been especially prepared by the Automobile Association and copyrighted, will direct the visitors to all the points of scenic and historical interest in this part of the state. The map will be ready for distribution in a short time, it is announced, and will be given the visiting motorist without charge.

On the map are listed the main arteries of travel in this part of the state together with several hundred points of scenic and historical interest. A key number at each point of interest refers the traveler to a description of that place printed on the map, which tells of its scenic interest or goes into the historical background that made the spot famous in California history.

CAN OBTAIN PERMITS TO MAKE GRAPE JUICE

Collector of Internal Revenue Risso informs this office that he now has on hand declarations of intention to manufacture vintage, which it is necessary for anyone who intends to manufacture wine, to fill out. The law provides that any married man can manufacture 200 gallons of wine for his own family use, after filling out and filing a declaration of intention. The declaration must be made out in triplicate form, and can be obtained from the Collector at his home at 21 Highand avenue, Burlingame, without charge.

REDWOOD YOUTH PASSES AWAY

Mr. and Mrs. George Whetmore of this city are receiving the sympathy of their friends in the loss of their 14-year-old son, Gordon, who passed away at their home here last Saturday morning. The Whetmores are recent arrivals in Redwood City, having come here lately from their former home in Mayfield, where the youth attended school. Besides the unfortunate boy, the bereaved family have two children, a daughter, June, and a son, George, Jr.

The funeral was held by the Layng and Tinney Undertaking Co., and interment was in the Alta Mesa cemetery in Palo Alto.

SISTER OF MRS. DAISY KRIESS DIES HERE

Mrs. Anna Robison, sister of Mrs. Daisy Kreiss of 718 Arguello street, this city passed away at the home of her sister here last Sunday following a brief illness. The deceased is the widow of the late E. F. Robison of San Jose, and is survived by two other sisters, Mrs. William Mass of Alameda and Mrs. Nora Sandales of Lakeworth, Florida, and by three brothers, Frank, Rodney and Artto Henry, two former of San Francisco, and the latter a resident of Napa. Funeral services were held Tuesday in the chapel of the Cypress Lawn cemetery, where the interment took place.

Cleaning Without Odor by the

F. Thomas Process

Our many years of experience has taught us that it is impossible to do perfect cleaning with cheap, inferior methods. That is why we found it necessary to invest nearly $500,000 in the equipment of a plant and the establishment of an expert organization to do the quality of work demanded by our customers.

With the "F. Thomas Process" we not only remove every particle of dust but we return your garments without that usual disagreeable smell of gasoline. Every drop of gasoline we use in cleaning is redistilled and very highly refined.

Raw gasoline—the kind that you buy for your automobile—is full of heavy oils and unfit for cleaning fabrics. It is little better than ordinary distillate and leaves a sickening "gasoline" smell in your clothes

Brooke, Public Administrator of the County of San Mateo, State of California, hereby respectfully makes and returns to said court this his return of all estates of decedents which have come into his hands from the 8th day of January, 1923, to and including the 2nd day of July, 1923, said return being as follows, to-wit:

NEWS OF MENLO PARK

The wedding of Miss Marian Thelma Warren and Fred E. Dieger took place Wednesday evening in private chapel of St. Ignatius church, Father R. A. Gleeson officiating. Miss Warren is the daughter of Frank W. Warren and a member of a pioneer family of San Francisco. She is a sister of Mrs. W. McWhite of Butte, Montana, Mrs. W. F. Varney and Frank D Warren of San Francisco. Mr. Delger is the son of Edward F. Delger. He is a graduate of the Univeritsy of California and served in the navy during the war.

Owing to the recent death of Mrs. Delger, mother of the bridegroom, only the immediate families were present at the ceremony. Mr. Delger maintains a palatial home at Atherton.

The Federal government contemplates the spending of $286,000, between now and July 1, 1924, for the further completion of the Veterans' Hospital at Menlo Park, according to Frank E. Leslie, commanding officer of the hospital. This sum will include $50,000 for repairs and alterations to the old hospital group of buildings.

Miss Britt, the teacher of penmanship and music in the rural schools of the county, offered three prizes for penmanship some time ago, and two of them were won by two pupils of the Menlo Park school, one Japanese and a Russian lassie. The winner of the second prize is to receive $3 and the third $2.

John MacBain has been awarded the contract for the erection of the new French Laundry on the Kennedy property. It is to be a modern laundry with apartments on the second story. The stipulated price of the contract is $23,000. The structure will be a credit to the community.

A modern theatre building with a seating capacity of 500 is about to be erected on the highway. Work on the structure is to begin next week. It will cost in the neighborhood of $10,000. All the latest pictures will be shown there.

Santa Clara University will open for the fall semester on August 15. A large class of boys will attend from here.

It is surprising what a Ford automobile is capable of doing, particularly when the gasoline is mixed with moonshine whiskey. It is capable of running up the side of a building and down again. Tuesday evening a driver saturated with local bootlegging whiskey, drove into the railing at the depot, uprooting cast iron posts, six inches in circumferanece, and imbeded in concrete four foot deep. They were tossed up as if they were only toothpicks. It would have taken an eight horse team two hours to remove them, yet the Lizzie did the work without receiving the slightest injury. The machine was driven around the depot, the driver escaping in the darkness. The manufacturer should be proud of the performance although it is said he is very dry. He has aspirations for the presidency which has prompted many to inquire if Ford is elected will he make another Lincoln.

Mrs. Mark Loughlan, a teacher in the local school, underwent an operation in St. Francis hospital in San Francisco recently. She will arrive home next week and will be able to resume her work in the grammar school which opens on August 27.

In the passing of Mrs. Helena Staples, a member of a pioneer California family, at her home in San Francisco last Tuesday, recalls her early life in this community. She was the third oldest daughter of the late Denis Martin, pioneer of '44, who crossed the plains with the Murphy party and after making a fortune in the mines located on the Pulgas Rancho which he received as a grant from the Mexican government. For his home he selected a large tract of land near the old St. Denis church. Here Mrs. Staples saw the light of day in the latter fifties. She was a dashing, daring girl possessingg all the adventuresome spirit of her father. Her face was a cast in beauty's mould. Her exquisite figure was slight, slender and willowy. She was a fearless horse woman. She would select a steed from her father's mount, dash down the road to Mayfield, her beautiful golden hair waving in the winds. She would, indeed, be a picture for the movies of today. This fearless, athletic girl was admired by all. She had suitors by the score. Miss Martin selected as her husband a blacksmith at the cross roads, the Coon bridge, not far from her home. After the marriage the happy young couple moved to the Dominga ranch, close to the Martin estate. There a little girl was born. One morning the proud mother left the child cooing in its cradle in a sunny portion of the yard. Suddenly she was aroused by the crying of the youngster. On looking out she saw a large California lion about to pounce upon the cradle. Immediately she grasped a convenient rifle and with unerring aim brought the animal to his knees as he was about to make off with the girl. Some time after this incident the Staples moved away and nothing was heard of the family until the death notice appearing in the city papers this week recalled the early life of the woman in this county. All old timers now living will recall the girlhood of this dashing athletic young woman of more than a half century ago.

Denis Martin had a number of daughters, but had only one son, Joseph Martin in whom he placed his affections and on whom he was to lean when old age came. In 1873 the boy was sent to St. Mary's College then located on Mission street, San Francisco. One bright autumn morning he started out for the city and at the J. Henry Meyer place met his chum, the late John Monohan, son of the late Mrs. Monohan. Both young men started to college together with a strong determination to make their mark in the world. They looked forward to their graduation day with considerable enthusiasm. By a strange freak of fate both young men passed away before that day approached. They were young men of promise and had they lived would no doubt have reached an enviable goal. Another young man, a chum from the same locality was attending St. Mary's. W. J. Murray, the realty broker. When Martin died it fell to him to convey the sad news to Denis Martin. He accomplished the task. The old man never fully recovered from the shock of the death of his son. He appeared to lose all interest in the world from that time on. Young Monohan died a short time afterwards.

Dennis Martin's oldest daughter married Jim Dixon, a Texas ranger. With his large sombero and long coat he cut quite a swath in the seventies in this and Santa Clara county. His southern dash made him many friends. He campaigned for sheriff of Santa Clara county but was overwhelming defeated. Dixon was a character in these days of long ago. One of the other girls married a man named Murtha who was a horseshoer at the Stanford stock farm in its palmy days.

Mrs. Staples left a number of sons and daughters, all prominent in the state.

Esther Paris leaves today to join her aunt at Lake Tahoe. Florinda, her pretty sister departs Thursday for Colorado Hot Springs.

Many fires have been started lately in this vicinity which has alarmed the residents considerably. Over ten fires were put out by the fire department during the week. A stack of hay on the Flood estate was destroyed, Wednesday evening. Thursday two culprits were arrested for the crime and it is believed they are the men who started the other fires.

Mr. P. Chitard, secretary for the Crocker Estate Company, is erecting a neat six-room bungalow in Menlo Oaks, which will be ready for occupancy in a few weeks when Mr Chitard will move his interesting family from San Francisco.

Both the proponents and opponents of incorporation are marking time wafting for the hearing of their petitions by the board of supervisors on August 20. In the mean time another group of citizens is busying themselves with the proposition of annexation. Monday night the chamber of commerce passed resolutions calling upon the supervisors of San Francisco to be taken into the city with the included territory to be annexed, that is from San Francisco to Belmont. What effect the new proposition will have on incorporation remains to be seen. Palo Alto and Mayfield want the southern end of San Mateo county to annex them and there are many in Menlo Park who favor the scheme. Should the northern part of this county go into the city no doubt the lines here will be extended to Adobe creek, a natural boundary line with all these propositions before them the voters of Menlo Park will have much to think about during the coming months.

It would be a beautiful world of sunshine and flowers and singing birds if everybody actually were as glad to meet everybody else as politicians appear to be.

NEWS OF WOODSIDE

The Woodside school opened on Monday with an enrollment of seventy. If all these pupils remained throughout the year it would about tax the capacity of the school. But some of the pupils are from families who make this only their summer residence, and these will be leaving us after a month or so.

Our local church opened its doors on Friday night to a congregation larger than usual. The occasion was a memorial service held to honor the memory of Warren Harding. There were several addresses and appropriate music.

Mr. and Mrs. Ettore Avenali and family left on Friday for a stay of several days at Monterey.

Mrs. Thomas Stewart has just returned from an extended trip to her old home in Scotland. She says that in her long trip she found no place that she liked quite as well as Woodside.

Mrs. McAlpine and daughter from Alameda are visiting with Mrs. McAlpine's relatives, the Lagardes.

Mrs. Laura Abrahams has returned from St. Luke's hospital where she spent several weeks following an automobile accident.

C. T. Bradley reports an unusually busy season at his resort on Lake Tahoe.

The members of the Family Club have made good use of their attractive "Farm" this season. A larger number of the members have summered here this year than at any previous time.

Searsville Lake Park has proved a great attraction to those who know of it. But it is off the main travelled road and so it loses much of the patronage that it will get when its location becomes better known.

The reason a man brags on his car when it is only a pile of junk, and stands up for his wife even though she may be mostly a drug store advertisement, is that no man is willing to admit his judgment is poor.

"Money makes the mare go," and an auto makes the money go.

WILL OF LATE GUY P. HULL FILED FOR PROBATE

The will of the late Guy P. Hull, pioneer merchant of this city, who died last week, was filed this week in the office of County Clerk Elizabeth M. Kneese, together with a petition of Asa E. Hull, a brother, for letters of administration.

The holographic will bears date of May 9, 1917, leaves his interest in the Redwood City business to his brother, Asa E. Hull, and to his sister, Mrs. Mary Hull Shields. Other bequests are made to relatives and friends. The estate is said to exceed the sum of $10,000. The petitioner is represented by Attorney Ross & Ross of this city.

TO ESTABLISH SPANISH-AMERICAN VETERAN'S CAMP

A camp of the Spanish-American war veterans will be established in Redwood City August 25 next by George Marshall, Adjutant-General for the United States, assisted by E. B. Hinman of this city. The organization will start with twenty-five members. It promises to be a very popular society. Mr. Marshall who will organize the camp, is the past commander for the state and is the assistant controller of customs for San Francisco. Mr. Marshall is a fluent speaker and on the night of the organization will deliver a speech detailing the objects and work of the organization. Mr. Marshall served throughout the Philippine campaign.

Does Fear Put a Tax on Your Pocket-Book?

Fear is a partner in the sale of many a quart of high-priced motor oil. The motorist pays for added protection that he does not get. The extra money usually goes into long-haul transportation and high merchandising costs.

Zerolene, produced on the Pacific Coast and often selling for half as much as other oils, reduces friction and wear to a greater extent than any other motor lubricant we have seen and tested or been able to produce. It is a better oil—even if it does cost less. Ask for it by name—Zerolene.
